“STREET LEAGUE IS ONE OF THE STRONGEST ‘DEVELOPMENT THROUGH FOOTBALL’ ORGANISATIONS CURRENTLY OPERATING IN THE UK AND THAT IS WHY WE ARE SUPPORTING THEIR WORK”

– FIFA

SUPPORTING YOUNG PEOPLE INTO WORK

Street League is the national charity that provides a structured football and education Academy programme designed to help unemployed young people get into work and further training.

The Academy runs for eight weeks, Monday to Thursday, and uses the power of football to develop leadership, communication and interpersonal skills. It includes one-to-one careers advice, employability and CV-writing workshops, and mock interview sessions.

*For the 12 months to March 2013, 864 joined the Street League Academy programme. 703 achieved a positive outcome (391 employment, 211 education, 101 training)

81% OF GRADUATES FROM THE STREET LEAGUE ACADEMY PROGRAMME PROGRESS INTO EMPLOYMENT, EDUCATION OR TRAINING*

RECRUITING NOW FOR OUR 2014 ACADEMIES

The Academy programme is for 16 to 23-year-olds who are not currently in employment, education or training. Anyone 19 or above must be in receipt of some form of benefit, for example Jobseekers Allowance or Housing Benefit.
